CANDIDATES

Arriving in Columbus for
the Big Convention

JUDGE HUNTER THERE

Pattison, Welty, Thos. Neal
and Others on Hand.

Newark Man Has Headquarters at the Southern — Arrangements
Perfect For Opening of State Convention—Contest For Governor An Open One—Platform Talk and Scenes About Various Hotels.

Columbus, O., June 26.—Judge
Samuel M. Hunter, Licking county's candidate for governor, arrived from Newark this afternoon
at 2 o'clock in company with Mr.
J. H. Newton, and opened his headquarters in parlors F and G
at the Great Southern hotel.

The following well-known men
are in charge of Judge Hunter's rooms: Edward W. Crayton, B.
F. McDonald, J. H. Newton, Robbins Hunter and John H. Williams. Handsome badges bearing an excellent likeness of Judge
Hunter and reading as follows,
are being distributed from the Hunter headquarters:

For Governor,
Judge S. M. Hunter,
of Licking County.

HUNTER STANDS WELL
WITH HIS OPPONENTS.

Columbus, June 26.—There is but one situation in the battle for the Democratic nomination for governor.
No one has a vote sufficient to nominate on the first ballot. Pattison hasn't enough, neither has Welty.

It doesn't look as though either one would be the favorite of enough second choice men to nominate him on the second. After the second ballot
the race is likely to be anybody's with Pattison, Welty and Neal eliminated.

Judge Hunter is the most generally
mentioned second choice of the Pattison, Welty and Neal men. His personality and his record as a Democrat, a lawyer, and a citizen are not only kindly but favorably and by many enthusiastically considered by men looking for a dark horse.

The motto of his canvass, "I have never yet apologized for being a Democrat" may have the effect of bringing to him a support that will astonish
even his most sanguine friends.

Pattison is here. Welty arrived Sunday evening and was the first on the ground. Judge McCann of Dayton, arrived at 10 this morning and Judge Hunter reached the Southern at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Welty, McCann and Neal all like Hunter. Welty, Pattison and Neal would each rather see Judge Hunter get the benefit of the votes of their followers in the convention than have them go to their principal contestants. McCann likes Hunter's strength on the breakup, should one come in the direction of a possible
dark horse.

Predictions as to the result of the race for governorship would however,
be ridiculous at this time. When the delegates begin to arrive, then will begin the rounding up process.

JOHN C. WELTY
VERY HOPEFUL

Columbus, O., June 26.—John C.
Welty, of Canton, led the Ohio candidates for gubernatorial nomination in getting into Columbus, and he says he will lead them under the wire in the nominations at the convention Wednesday. He opened headquarters at the Great Southern hotel Sunday. He will give no figures, saying:

"Our figures will be shown in the convention. Figures don't lie, but they make liars."

The Democratic advance guard is arriving today and although the convention proper does not convene until Wednesday, the hotels are expected to be well filled tonight with candidates,
their managers and boosters.

CONTEST IN SUMMIT
AND CUYAHOGA COUNTIES

Columbus, O., June 26.—The minority gubernatorial candidates and managers appreciate the lead of Pattison and Welty, but take hope from the closeness of the contest. Two contests involving three congressional districts may prove a key to the control of the convention and the party machinery. The contests are in Cuyahoga and Summit counties.

CANDIDATES ON
THE GROUND

Columbus, June 26.—Arrangements
have been completed for the Ohio Democratic convention, which meets here Tuesday and Wednesday. Already the hotels are filling up, and it is expected large crowds will be here to witness the proceedings. The convention proper will be called to order at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, the temporary organization being as follows: M. A. Daugherty, Lancaster, chairman; P. A. Berry, McVernon, secretary; Bert S. Bartlow, Hamilton; D. S. Fisher, Ravenna; Emery Lattaber, Van Wert, and Joe L. Mc-Dowell, Coshocton, assistant secretaries; Joseph Goldsoll, Cleveland,
sergeant-at-arms; George J. Karb, Columbus, first assistant sergeant-at-arms; G. L. Rogers, Logan, and P. E.
Welsh, Hamilton, second assistant sergants-at-arms. Rev. John Hewitt, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church,
is named as chaplain. The district delegate meetings will be held Tuesday afternoon.

The contest for the gubernatorial nomination hourly becomes more spirited. A review of the field shows that the following prominent party members will be placed before the convention, formally or otherwise: John M.
Pattison of Clermont, John C. Welty
of Canton, Lawrence T. Neal of Chillicothe, B. F. McCann of Montgomery,
Hiram D. Peck of Cincinnati, Will S.
Thomas of Springfield, Brand Whitlock of Toledo, A. R. VanCleaf of Cin-cleville, S. M. Hunter of Newark,
Charles W. Baker of Cincinnati,
Frank S. Monnett of Columbus, James Kilbourne, also of Columbus, and John
S. Snook of Paulding. The managers and followers of Pattison have been active in making claims for him, and intimate it is now their man against the field. The contest began in earnest at the Great Southern today, when the candidates and their aids de camp
arrived and opened their headquarters.
The game is to get second choice
promises and to rake in the delegates who come without instructions. These constitute a vast majority of the convention. It is claimed that Welty will have most of the large cities behind him, Cleveland being the notable exception. Pattison will have the farmers and the dwellers of the villages.
It is conceded by some that the man who wins the nomination will also dictate the platform. This is Mr.
Pattison's program, and it follows that if he is defeated that the victor will exercise this privilege. It is said on good authority that if the Clermont
man is successful that the platform
will contain no declaration for municipal ownership. The nearest approach will be a pronouncement in favor of home rule for cities. If national matters are placed in the platform, the resolutions will contend that the quantitative theory of money has been ven-dicated; that the tariff should be reduced; that anti-trust legislation
should be enforced and enlarged; that there should be governmental control
of railway rates; that the United States senators should be chosen by the popular vote and that Bryan is the leader of the party.

REEDS DAUGHTER WEDS.

Portland, Me., June 26.—Miss Katharine Reed, daughter of the late Thomas
B. Reed, was quietly married to Arthur L. Ballentine, Lieutenant U. S. A., today.

At Appleton, Wis., Mary Derrick, 9, dropped dead while skipping a rope.

CHARGES AGAINST GRIFFITH.

Cincinnati, O., June 26.—The National Baseball commission which will hear the charges preferred against Howard Griffith, decided today that the hearing will occur at Cleveland on July 20, instead of July 6 as previously announced.

COUNT CASSINI

Russian Ambassador Has Engaged Passage for July 11 from New York—Successor Rosen.

Washington, June 26.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, has engaged passage for July 11 from New York. The ambassador will probably remain in Washington to await the arrival of his successor, Baron Rosen,
who lands in New York July 6. Count Cassini will then go to New York for a few days and thence to Oyster Bay,
there to present his letters of recall to the president. This ceremony over, the ambassador will return to New York and remain until he sails. The presentation of Baron Rosen as ambassador will take place at Oyster
Bay soon after the departure of Count Cassini, and will be characterized by the ceremonies appropriate to the reception of the personal envoy of Emperor Nicholas.

GAS GUSHERS STRUCK
IN KENTUCKY

Owingsville, Ky., June 26.—Gas was struck on the Holly Wilson farm by men drilling for oil. A careless bystander struck a match and ignited
the gas and the derrick and machinery, worth $100, were destroyed. Sam
Spencer, a driller, was badly burned.
Near Grange City a gas well of 1,200
pressure was struck and ignited, burning day and night.

Explosions Cause a Panic.

Danbury, Conn., June 26.—An electric car ran over several torpedoes placed on the track by boys. The explosions created a panic among the women passengers, and Mrs. Mary Davis, 60, jumped from the car and her skull was fractured. She died a few minutes later.

WHITES AND BLACKS
CLASH IN INDIANA

Vincennes, Ind., June 26.—City Marshal Combs, George Bells, living near Reids, A. S. Combs of Vincennes and an unknown negro, who escaped, are more or less seriously wounded by bullets as a result of a race riot which took place at Lawrenceville, a hamlet
five miles west of this city during a carnival. George Goins, whose act of slapping a white man precipitated the conflict, and who narrowly escaped lynching by an angry crowd, which had erected a gallows before it was dispersed, is in jail here. The unknown negro who fled is known to have been shot several times, but the extent of his injuries is unknown.

JAPANESE WANT
NO ARMISTICE

Washington, June 26.—Intimation
comes from high official sources today
that not only has the President been advised that an armistice is impossible of accomplishment, but that the Japanese may carry on military operations in Manchuria until the signatures of the peace plenipotentiaries are affixed to the peace treaty and the terms of settlement made final.

MANY VERY BADLY.

Lodz Presents Appearance
of Armed Camp Today.

Troops Hold the Streets and Citizens Are Not Allowed to Leave
Homes Without Permit—Town
In State of Siege—Massacres at Lodz May Be Repeated at Warsaw.

Lodz, June 26.—The casualties
during the riots as estimated today, were 561 killed and over 700
wounded, many of them seriously.
General Schutleworth today declared that order has been restored.

MASSACRE PROBABLE
IN POLISH CAPITAL

(Bulletin.)

St. Petersburg, June 26.—A message received here today from Warsaw, says the Jewish quarter of the city is now in full revolt. It is expected a repetition of the massacres of Lodz will occur in the Polish capital.

Lodz, Poland, June 26.—Lodz this morning presents the appearance of an armed camp. Troops hold the streets and no citizens are allowed to leave their homes without a permit.

The town has been declared by the governor general of Warsaw to be in a state of siege and General Schutle-worth has been placed in command of the troops, which hold the city.

The awful slaughter of Friday and Saturday has had a quieting effect,
and there has been no general fighting, such as marked those two bloody days. In the outskirts of the town brawls between civilians and soldiers have occurred at intervals, but there has been little bloodshed. The brutality of the soldiers has greatly alarmed
even the rioters, who prefer keeping out of the way of the Josaks and dragoons.

All industry is at a standstill today.
The stores are closed and no factories are operating. Many people have left the town and others are hastening to get away until the troubles are over.

MANY FACTORIES CLOSED.

Warsaw, June 26.—The social Democratic party of Poland and Lithuania
did not succeed in bringing about a general strike at Warsaw today as directed in the proclamation issued Saturday calling on all workmen as a protest against the massacre at Lodz.

Many of the factories are closed, but some of the stores are affected, but the strike is far from being general. The strikers have picketed the factories,
and efforts are being made to call out
the men still working. In several instances men who refused to listen to the demands of the strikers were shot
by the pickets as they started to enter the factories. Troops hold all the principal streets and public squares this morning and the soldiers have orders
to fire upon the slightest provocation.
No newspapers made their appearance
this morning.

Great crowds had assembled in the streets and these are being constantly augmented. Barricades are being erected in various parts of the city
and street cars have been overturned to form the nucleus of such street defenses. The shops and stores in the district are closed and business is at a standstill.

Bloodshed has begun to develop at any moment as the troops and the people are in an angry mood. Thirty-four battalions of troops are billeted
in the streets, giving it the appearance of a camp, and barrels are being laid everywhere. The soldiers are encouraging the people and the troops
are almost certain to bring on a riot.

At Czenstochow last night a bomb was thrown at a crowd of police as they were riding in a carriage. The officer and seven civilians were seriously hurt.

Plans to build electric street car lines in Peking have aroused a great protest from the natives, who say the cars would be very harmful to the poor, as large numbers of coolies now
make a living by hauling passengers
in rickshaws or on wheelbarrows.

IN ALL EUROPE ENGLAND IS NOW THE ONLY QUIET SPOT

London, June 26.—Never has the political horizon of the world been as clouded as it is now since the days
when the great Napoleon played ball with the kingdoms of Europe. Everywhere is disorder and unrest.

Russia is practically in a state of revolution which only the strict censorship prevents from becoming known. Street fights which are regular battles are being fought in the barricaded streets of Lodz.

The danger of war between Norway
and Sweden is by no means over.
War between Germany and France is hanging over our heads like the sword of Damocles.

Austria and Hungary are in a state of the greatest turmoil, and that actual civil war has not broken out is due only to the love and respect of every body for the old Emperor Francis Joseph. What will happen when he dies is impossible to foretell, but his successor will not be the ruler of both countries is a foregone conclusion.

In Italy the people are being driven to despair by the increasing taxes, and the strength of the country is being sapped by the continuous emigration.
In the Balkans there is the usual

confusion, the people of the various Christian states killing each other and the Turks massacring them all.
Behind the walls of his Konak in Belgrade, King Peter lives in steady fear of his life, a fear which has almost driven him insane.

In Germany the Socialist criticism
of the Kaiser is sharper than ever,
and that in spite of the great risk incurred in writing anything which displeases the Emperor. What the Socials especially object to is the Kaiser's growing extravagance. He owns 83 landed estates, all of them
models in their line, and many of them very profitable, although the men working on the imperial estates
are paid higher wages than anywhere else.

The Kaiser is allowed an annual income of $4,000,000, but is always in financial straits, and the rumors in the English press that he had borrowed large amounts from Berlin
bankers were undoubtedly true.

In Spain, King Alfonso is doing his best to keep his poverty-stricken people from rebelling.

In all Europe England is the only quiet spot, and in the hands of King Edward lies largely the question of peace or war.

CRACKSMAN

Just Free From Prison Will Enter Pinkerton Detective Service.

Jackson, Mich., June 26.—W. Ham Meyers, alias "Dutch Jerry," one of the most notorious cracksmen in the state at one time, was released from the state prison this morning. It is said that Meyers will enter the service of the Pinkerton detective agency. He was sent to prison in 1897 for ten years from Detroit for having burglar tools in his possession. During his incarceration in prison here he has been a model prisoner.

SECRETARY HAY

Quite Ill at Newbury and Physicians Are Hurried
To Him From Boston.

Newbury, N. H., June 26.—Secretary of State Hay is reported today to be more comfortable. His condition yesterday was such that it was deemed advisable to summon additional medical aid and a special train arrived this morning, bringing another physician
from Boston. It is said Secretary Hay is suffering much in the same manner
as before he took his trip abroad.

Dr. Scudder, chief visiting surgeon
at the Massachusetts General Hospital,
and Dr. Fred T. Murphy, assistant visiting surgeon at the same hospital,
were the physicians called from Boston.

Mr. Hay is suffering from uraemic condition, the third serious attack of the kind he has had in the past four years. He has suffered a number of slight attacks, but many of them he has been able to relieve without the aid of a physician. When he was stricken last night he tried to relieve himself with the same remedies he had used before, but without success.

After summoning Dr. J. L. Cain, of Newport, Mrs. Hay became greatly alarmed at her husband's suffering and telegraphed for Boston surgeons.

When Dr. Scudder and Murphy arrived they found Secretary Hay sleeping, and learned that Dr. Cain had giving the necessary treatment for temporary relief. After making an examination and consulting with Dr. Cain, Dr.
Scudder returned to Boston, leaving Dr. Cain to watch developments, and to be on hand in case an operation became necessary.

100 LASHES

On His Bare Back Was Punishment
Given a Negro for Entering a White Woman's Room.

New Albany, Mo., June 26.—A white woman sticking on the whipcord in the arms of places on his black skin silenced him last Sunday, promising never to return. Prominent citizens caught him on his way to the corner of a room of an extreme woman of this city. He headed the mob who wanted to lynch the negro, but wiser counsel prevailed and it was decided to give him 100 lashes. This was done in public.

Prominent citizens of Boston have undertaken a movement looking to the purchase and preservation of the home of Paul Revere.

LEVI BEVARD

Is Bound Over to Grand Jury
by Mayor

HIS BOND IS $5000

Case Ended Abruptly Mon-
day Afternoon.

The Fact That Prisoner Was Admitted To Bail Is Regarded As Point Gained By Defense—Prisoner Has No Kick on Treatment
By Newspapers.

Levi Bevard, who is charged with the murder of his wife's mother-in-law, Mrs. F. B. Franks, was bound over to the grand jury
by Mayor Crilly at 2 o'clock today afternoon after the defense had examined its last witness.

Mayor Crilly in giving his decision stated that the evidence did not warrant holding the prisoner without bail and the amount was fixed at $5,000.

Messrs. Smythe and Smythe, attorneys for the defense, were well pleased over the result of the three days' trial and feel that it will be with but little difficulty
that the prisoner will furnish bail.
The evidence offered both Monday morning and Monday afternoon gave no new features in the case.

HEARING ENDED ABRUPTLY

The Bevard hearing came abruptly
to a close Monday afternoon in the mayor's court. So abruptly did it end,
the spectators could not realize that the hearing was over. Dr. Legge was on the stand and only told the court
of one or two letters which he found at the Werts home.

When this witness was excused, the attorney for the defense announced that he would rest the case. The prosecution did not care to offer anything
in rebuttal and the mayor gave his decision as stated above.

The people in the court room could not realize that the case was over as far as that court was concerned, many
no doubt expecting a long winded
discussion from the attorneys on both sides.

Bevard was pleased with the outcome of the case. He said regarding the way the newspapers handled the case that he had no kick coming and felt very well satisfied in every way.

C. C. Shaw, a farmer residing on the Cherry Valley road, told the court that Levi Bevard bore a good reputation in the vicinity of his home.

Daniel B. Ward of Crestline, O., a half brother of Levi Bevard, stated to the court that he saw tracks in the plowed field, 20 feet from the west windows, where the murderer probably entered. His attention was called to these tracks Friday after the tragedy
by Alexander Bevard.

Ella Warrington told the court that Eva Werts had a reputation for being untruthful but could name no one but
Mrs. Hoover who had said anything against Eva, and the witness could not remember what was said.

Coroner Legge was recalled and presented to the court several papers
which were found at the Werts home.
None of the papers were important,
and had no bearing in the case.

The session of the Mayor's court
Monday morning developed absolutely nothing new in the case in which Levi Bevard is defendant. The defense introduced much testimony but the evidence seemed to have but little connection with the affair.

One witness took the stand and told the court how he beat his way from Newark to Chicago Junction. Numerous questions were asked by Attorney Smythe and when he turned the witness over to the prosecution for cross-examination, Prosecutor Wright gibed
excused him without any inquiry.

The defense continues to offer evidence which would indicate that they are fighting to have the testimony of Eva Werts count for as little as possible. Several persons said on the stand Monday morning that the Werts girl
did not have a good reputation.

Again did a witness tell of the presence of a stranger at the home of Wesley Wright, north-west of the Werts home. No one could state positively, however, that this man was seen in that vicinity during the two weeks preceding the murder.

Mr. Wright stated to a reporter for the Advocate that the man referred to

CAREFUL SEARCH

Fails To Reveal Whereabouts of Miss Mary
Rogers, Aged 30.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., June 26.—A careful search today has failed to reveal the whereabouts of Miss Mary Rogers, 30, daughter of Alexander Rogers, of Leesburg, Va., and niece of the late governor Bowie of Maryland,
who disappeared from college yesterday. The authorities are investigating and bloodhounds from Dannemore prison are here today. The wire window screen of Miss Rogers' room was cut
and there was evidence of a struggle.
The woman came here with Miss Janney, a nurse, and W. N. Smith, a Baltimore lawyer. The woman had been left a large fortune, part of which she lost in speculation.

SCORE OF CADETS ARE DROWNED

Copenhagen, June 26.—The private cadet ship Georgetage has been rammed by the British steamer, Anaconda, and sunk.
Twenty-two cadets were drowned
and 57 were rescued.

KAISER'S YACHT IS DEFEATED

Imperial Yacht Club, Prussia, June 26.—The German yacht Hamburg defeated Emperor William's Meteor III
over a 23-knot course by nearly six minutes. The time of the Hamburg was 3 hours 21 minutes 47 seconds,
and that of the Meteor was 3 hours 27 minutes 35 seconds. Emperor William with a large party was on board the Meteor III.

DUCHESS HAS A SON.

Paris, June 26.—A son was born today to the Duchess de la Roche-Fouchaud, who was formerly Miss
Marie Mitchell, daughter of Senator
J. H. Mitchell of Oregon. Miss Mitchel was married to the Duke de la Roche-Fouchaud in Paris February 11, 1892. Whitelaw Reid, who was then minister to Paris, gave the bride away
and the wedding was attended by prominent members of the French aristocracy as well as members of the American colony.

IN ASHES

Is a Section of the Shopping District
of Nashville, Tenn.

Nashville, Tenn., June 26.—Fire in the retail shopping district caused damage estimated at between $500,000
and $650,000. The flames were discovered in the Palace, a big department store, occupied by Harris Brothers and Jacobus Brothers. Their spread was rapid and when they were gotten under control the following included
the list of losses: The Palace, four-story building, occupied by Harris
Brothers, whole-sale and retail millinery, and Jacobus Brothers; owned by Norman Kirkman; burned. The Manix, six-story building, occupied by Nashville Dry Goods company; owned by Norman Kirkman; burned. Two three-story buildings being fitted up for Kress & Company, owned by the Browne heirs, were wrecked by falling walls and burned. Others who sustained losses are: Wright Brothers,
decorators; cash grocery store,
R. W. Turner, Cumberland Baking Powder company, Alfred Steam Dye works.

LANDING HERE OF CHINESE

President Roosevelt Takes Action
Seeking to Facilitate It.

AFFECTS EXEMPT CLASSES.

Provisions of the Law Against Skilled or Unskilled Coolie Labor Will, It is Claimed, Be Fully Carried Out. Order Issued to Prevent Boycott on American Manufacturers.

Washington, June 26. — President Roosevelt directs that steps be taken that not only will facilitate landing in this country of Chinese of exempt classes, but will eliminate from the emigration bureau such administrative features as have been the subject of criticism by Chinese. It is the declared intention of the president to see that Chinese merchants, travelers, students and others of the exempt classes shall have the same courtesy shown them by officers of the emigration bureau as is accorded to citizens of the most favored nation. Recently representations have been made here that in view of the alleged harsh treatment accorded to many Chinese seeking landing in the United States, the Federal guilds of China have decided to institute a boycott on S. S. manufacturers. The representatives, backed by the authority of the American Asiatic society and other bodies throughout the country, induced the president to investigate the situation, in view of remedying the evils complained of, if they were found to be subject to discussion.

The subject was discussed thoroughly by the cabinet, and the president took it up personally with Secretary Metcalf of the department of commerce and labor, who has supervision of the immigration bureau. As a result orders have been issued to diplomatic and consular representatives of the United States in China, by the president himself, that they must look closely to the performance of their duties under the exclusion law, and to see to it that members of the exempt classes coming to this country are provided with proper certificates. These certificates will be accepted at any port of the United States and will guarantee the bearer against any harsh or discourteous treatment. Such treatment indeed be the cause of the instant dismissal of the offending officer, who he may be.

The president issued orders through the secretary of commerce and labor that while laborers must be excluded, the law must be enforced without harshness, and that all unnecessary inconvenience and annoyance toward those persons entitled to enter the United States must be scrupulously avoided. In addition, Secretary Metcalf has issued instructions to the immigration officers which will remedy the difficulty heretofore complained of by the Chinese government and individuals. It is anticipated that the prompt action taken by this government to meet the objections made by the Chinese will eliminate the possibility of serious trade difficulties between China and the manufacturers of this country.

STRIKE BREAKERS

Arrived in Newark Sunday Night and Polishing Department at Foundry is Running.

A party of nonunion polishers arrived in the city Sunday night from St. Louis and on Monday morning went to work for the Wehrle company. The party consisted of seventeen men, and the polishing department at the foundry is running today with ninety-five men at work.

A rumor was in circulation Monday morning that the stove works would shut down as a result of the trouble, but the officers of the Wehrle company would not discuss the rumor.

LIGHT PLANT

Sold by Mr. Warden and Others to New Company in Which Dawes & Gillett are Interested.

The Citizens Electric Light and Power Company's plant is about to go into new hands, but the deal it is said, is not yet completed. Congressman D. G. Dawes formerly of Newark, now making his home at Marietta, and Col. M. M. Gillett with other parties are interested in the transaction.

This plant was organized ten years ago, has had at its head the following officers.

Captain F. G. Warden, president and general manager; E. L. Weisberber, vice president; William E. Miller, secretary and treasurer.

Rumor had it that the new company was to take possession Monday, June 26. It is understood that the consideration is somewhere in the neighborhood of $115,000, but nothing definite is known, as all of the parties interested are out of the city, and no statements will be made until their return some time this evening or Tuesday morning.

There have been 319 statues of the Kaiser erected in Germany to date.

PERDICARIS

Captured by a Bandit Is Chadwick's Guest

AN INTERESTING TALK

Given on Moroccan Question By This Man

Probably More Familiar With Trouble That Is Now Agitating
France and Germany Than Any Other American—He Gives His Opinion As To the Real Point at Issue—In Morocco.

Newport, R. I., June 26.—Jon Perdicaris, who was captured by bandit Raisuli and held prisoner in Morocco, is visiting Admiral Chadwick, by whom he was rescued at Twin Oaks. Perdicaris, who is probably more familiar with the Moroccan question which at present is agitating France and Germany, than any other American, gave his opinion today as to the real point at issue. Said he: "England, France, Germany, Austria, Spain, Belgium and the United States all stand upon an equal footing in Morocco. The Madrid treaty of 1880 made each of the contracting powers a favored nation in Morocco. Remember this at the outset and rid your mind of the feeling that France exercises financial control in Morocco. The present Moorish dynasty dates from 1780, and has never acknowledged allegiance to any other government."

"The French are anxious to get financial control in Morocco and last summer succeeded in driving the Moroccan government into accepting a loan for $50,000,000, the first foreign loan Morocco ever contracted. The five per cent interest was guaranteed from the Moroccan customs and the French were permitted to place inspectors in the custom houses. Beyond this Morocco guaranteed France no special right above and beyond the other signatories of the Madrid treaty."

"The difficulties surrounding the Sultan of Morocco have been made greater since 1902. Then a pretender to the Moroccan throne appeared. It was commonly supposed that this pretender drew his supplies largely from France. After he had inflicted a series of defeats upon the Sultan's troops a special French embassy was sent up to Fez from Tangier to induce the Sultan in return for further loans, to submit to French control of the expenditures of the Moroccan government."

"They thought and hoped in France that French officers could thus be appointed to administer the various departments of Morocco's treasury. They had overlooked the fact that according to the treaty rights of the other signatories the Sultan was not in a position to refuse similar advantages to each or any other participant in the Madrid convention."

"Germany, however, was not blind to the opportunity which this circumstance afforded and was thus enabled to inflict a mortifying check upon both France and England, which, together with Spain, were pleased to imagine themselves the only nation selected to influence the political destinies of Morocco."

"The inhabitants were outraged by the proposition to dispose of their future without consulting the wishes of the country itself, and therefore were delighted at the Kaiser's intervention. They may possibly welcome a collective intervention of the signatory powers, with a view to establishing order and developing the resources of a country so rich in endowments of soil and climate."

"At any rate the Sultan was the reader to listen to the Kaiser because England had so hastily agreed to the French proposition regarding Morocco. Greatly to his consternation the Sultan found himself abandoned to the tender mercies of his powerful neighbor on the Algerian frontier. For France, within the last few years, had invaded in the districts which figured, even on French maps as Moorish territory."

WITH SOME HEAT

Berlin. Newspapers Discuss Franco-German Situation.

Berlin, June 26. — Chancellor Von Buelow received M. Bihourd, the French ambassador. The newspapers continue to discuss the situation between France and Germany with some heat. The North German Gazette declares that "in Premier Rouvier's note the republic adopts no decided standpoint toward a conference, and therefore the situation is no clearer." An attempt is being made to shift the responsibility for the recent war panic to articles in the British press, and the National Zeitung solemnly reminds France that a Franco-German conflict would not be decided by a Trafalgar, but on French or German battlefields.

PEACE ENVOYS MEET IN AUGUST

High Russian Officials Considering
the Date of the Meeting.

ROOSEVELT SUGGESTS TIME

Strength of the Japanese Armies Supplies an Argument For Peace—Armistice Before Conference Unlikely. Mikado's Terms to Be Moderate. Rioting in Poland.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—When the details of the rioting in Poland become known it may be expected that the news will create the deepest impression in all industrial sections of Russia and bring about disorders which would be particularly unfortunate coming just at this juncture, when the government is bending every effort to induce the people to be patient and to await the issuance of a ukase announcing the convocation of a national assembly, the proclamation regarding which can not be long delayed. The date for the convocation was some time ago tentatively fixed for June 28, but the final revision of the project is taking longer than had been expected, and the ukase will probably have to be postponed. In Poland itself, the events at Lodz may initiate an era of open resistance to the troops lasting for months.

A proposition for the date of the meeting of the peace plenipotentiaries at Washington has been submitted to Russia and is now under consideration. The exact date proposed has not been ascertained, but there is reason to suppose that it is some time during the first week or ten days of August, which is about the earliest period at which the Japanese representatives could be expected to reach Washington. Whether the proposal of late originated at Tokyo or Washington can not be learned, but the fact that the negotiations were conducted through Ambassador Meyer may indicate that President Roosevelt has perhaps again stepped to the fore and suggested to the two powers, neither of whom would be willing to take the initiative, a suitable date.

The Novoe Vremya prints an interview with its correspondent at Paris had with a Japanese diplomat, who says that while nobody outside of the emperor of Japan and his principal advisers is yet in possession of Japan's terms, he believes that they are moderate and will be acceptable. He adds that Japan is anxious to conclude a lasting peace, but that her attitude is not influenced by the slightest doubt as to her financial ability to continue the war, she having anticipated a much longer and more difficult period of hostilities.

M. Neratoff, underminister of foreign affairs and the spokesman of the foreign office, declares an armistice pending the meeting of the plenipotentiaries is improbable, and he comments on the possibility of a battle taking place before a conference is held. Ruskly Invalid, the army organ, supplies an argument for peace in an estimate of the strength of the Japanese armies, which it places at from 550,000 to 600,000 men, including the forces operating in Korea. In the five Japanese armies opposing General Linewitch, exclusive of cavalry and artillery, it estimates that there are from 430,000 to 450,000 bayonets, which give Field Marshal Oyama a decided numerical superiority over the strength usually allotted to Linewitch's army. The Japanese forces, it says, are divided as follows: General Kuroki, 115,000 to 120,000 bayonets; General Oku, 110,000 to 115,000 bayonets; General Nogai, 85,000 to 90,000 bayonets; General Nodzu, 45,000 bayonets; General Kawamura, 73,000 to 80,000 bayonets.

AT THE FRONT

Both Japanese and Russian Army Officers Report Activity—Official Messages Received.

Tokyo, June 26.—The following official dispatch has been received from the Japanese army headquarters in Manchuria: "The enemy, holding the northwest eminence of Manchoosou, was attacked and dislodged on the afternoon of June 22, but a portion of the enemy holding the hills to the west offered stubborn resistance, and the hills were finally taken by assault. Another force of the enemy holding the hills due north was attacked from the front, and we simultaneously resorted to a turning movement from the northeast, intercepting his retreat and causing him heavy loss. The enemy in confusion hoisted the Red cross flag, but this did not stop our firing and he fled north in disorder. His strength in cavalry and infantry was some 3,000 men and several guns. Fifty corpses were left on the field. The enemy's loss was fully 200. Our loss was insignificant."

Linevitch's Dispatch. St. Petersburg, June 26. — General Linevitch reports a number of engagements with the enemy, as a result of which the Russian advance guards recovered their former positions.

T. M. EDMISTON

Buys Interest of His Partner in the Old
Book Store on the West Side of the Square.

Mr. T. M. Edmiston announced Monday afternoon that he had purchased the interest of his partner, Mr. E. L. Horney, in the firm of Horney & Edmiston, booksellers and stationers. This firm began business in Newark 12 1/2 years ago, buying the Hammond & Son stock of goods in the fall of 1891. Mr. Horney of Chillicothe, has been interested during all of that period with Mr. Edmiston but the business has been under Mr. Edmiston's sole management, Mr. Horney's residence being in Chillicothe.

This well known store is located on West Park Place, in a room that has been used continuously for a book store for the past 60 years. At no time has its standard been higher than at present. Mr. Edmiston is a thorough business man and by his popularity and strict attention to affairs has established a splendid business.

Of Eighth Regiment Ohio National Guards Go Into Camp at the State Grounds.

Four companies of the Eighth Regiment Ohio National Guards, A. of B. Syrus, K. of Alliance, C. of Galion and M. of Mansfield, under command of Major Fred Marquis and accompanied by the famous Eighth Regiment band are now in camp at the state ground west of Newark, having arrived Sunday.

The regulars who have been in camp there will return to Columbus on Tuesday.

MERCHANTS' PICNIC

IS PROPOSED.

Some of the prominent business men of the city are agitating a Merchants' Outing to be held some time soon at Buckeye Lake. A few days ago the business men of New Lexington closed up shop and with their families and friends went to the lake for a day's recreation and rest and several well known Newarkers think that the business men of this place should close their stores for a single day and go to the lake in a body. The plans have not as yet taken definite form, but something tangible may take place within a few days.

IN THE COURTS

Action for Divorce.

Sadie Vore has commenced suit for divorce in the Probate court against her husband, Frank Vore. The parties were married December 4, 1880, and no children were born of the marriage. For cause of action the plaintiff charges her husband with having been an habitual drunkard for three years and more, and also with being cruel and abusive. J. W. Horner, attorney for the plaintiff.

Petition in Error.

In the case of Frank Hartman vs. the Columbus, Newark and Zanesville Electric Railroad company, wherein judgment was rendered against the defendant in Justice Lake's court, the defendant has filed a petition in error in the Common Pleas court, and asks that the judgment be reversed and that it be restored to all things it has lost by reason thereof.

Court House Notes.

A foreign summons from the Knox county Common Pleas court in the case of the Union Insurance company against Geo. Dewey et al. was received by Sheriff S. L. Redman Monday morning for service. Deputy Sheriff Hintel left for Appleton, where the parties reside, to serve the summons.

MANY VALUABLES

Are Sent to Laundries by Mistake, but
They Are Always Returned to Their Owners.

"An L. F. department—a lost and found department—is essential to all good laundries," said the man at the collar machine, to the Chicago Chronicle, "and if this department isn't conducted like clockwork trade soon falls off."

He took two handfuls of rough dried turn down collars and dropped them in the top of a vertical cylinder. Then he pressed a button, and there was a swift whirling round and out of the bottom of the cylinder, the collars tumbled on to a white linen mat, ironed, turned and ready to put on.

"So much is lost in the wash," he went on. "That pretty girl over there by the window found in a shirt last week two diamond buttons worth $1,000. If the owner of the buttons hadn't got them back from our L. F. promptly, think what a bad name he'd have given the house."

"I found only yesterday in the pocket of a pair of duck trousers a $10 bill. The owner is a millionaire; he hadn't missed the bill; when the matter was reported to him over the telephone he said to credit his laundry account with half and to give the other half to the honest finder."

"Jewelry, studs, collar buttons, sleeve links, are our main finds. It is men, rather than women, who lose things in the wash. Our L. F. statistics for last year showed finds worth $35,000."

CLEAN CAMPAIGN

Desired by Governor Herrick, Who Issues a Brief Statement.

Cleveland, O., June 26. — Governor Herrick issued a statement in which he said: "I trust the campaign this fall will be similar to that of two years ago. Personal abuse and billingsgate are relics of the dark ages and have no place in modern politics. I am in favor of a short campaign, but that will depend on who is nominated by the Democrats at their convention in Columbus. From present indications it appears to me probable that John M. Pattison of Cincinnati will secure the nomination."

The Lodz Massacres.

That is a sad tale which comes from the city of Lodz, Poland, as to the terrible scenes which have been enacted there during the past few days, and it is one which strikingly illustrates the evils of Russian rule. The bloodshed was started by the attack of a body of soldiers on striking workmen, by which many of the latter were killed or wounded. In retaliation the workmen armed themselves and attacked the soldiers, and an awful scene of riot and carnage followed. The workmen proved to be too strong for the troops, and reinforcements for the latter had to be sent from other places. The trouble may spread to Warsaw, and to other parts of Poland, and it would not be surprising if the whole of that unhappy country should rise in revolt.

The failure of Russian rule in Poland has been long evident. These troubles only accentuate the fact. The attack of the troops on the strikers at Lodz appears to have been as inexcusable and as fatal as the shooting down of the people of St. Petersburg some months ago when proceeding in peaceable procession to lay their grievances before the Czar. The soldiers and not the people, in both instances began the shedding of blood, and the fact speaks volumes for the inefficiency of the Russian government.

Lodz is a city of about the same size as Pittsburgh proper. It is a great manufacturing place also and has within a short time grown at a rapid rate. One reason for this was the cutting of a canal some 75 miles long to the sea, which enabled its manufacturers to get cheap raw materials and to send away their manufactured goods at a lower rate. It would be a thriving, prosperous city and its people would be happy, if they enjoyed a good government. But the rule of Russia has fallen as a heavy blight on the city, and its streets are today red with the blood of its people. It is no wonder that with such object lessons before it the civilized world has little sympathy with the Russian government at this time.

Mr. Roosevelt's Morton Mistake.

(New York World.)
After his whitewashing of Paul Morton President Roosevelt will find it hard to resist his old reputation for right thinking and fearless action. A Quay, a Platt or a Murphy in his place could not have shown grosser discrimination in favor of a personal friend.

Here is a prominent railroad official who has frequently confessed to violating the interstate commerce laws. He is promoted to the Cabinet. Further evidence of his guilt is discovered. But he is a close friend of Mr. Roosevelt, and Mr. Roosevelt forbids his prosecution.

Better lawyers than Mr. Roosevelt find ample grounds for action against Mr. Morton and other Santa Fe officials. Their motives are known to be disinterested and above suspicion. But Mr. Roosevelt, with executive, not with judiciary powers, declares his friend Mr. Morton innocent and prevents the courts from hearing his case. The coddling of Loomis was an unfortunate mistake, but the protection of Paul Morton takes on some of the aspects of a national scandal.

In every railroad headquarters in the country there will be rejoicing. To save Paul Morton from the necessity of defending himself Mr. Roosevelt has practically issued a general amnesty to all railroad lawbreakers. Personal guilt is abolished. Only corporations can sin, and for them the penalty is a trifling fine. In order that Paul Morton may go scot-free Mr. Roosevelt makes a dead letter of the statute.

President Roosevelt has deliberately and with set purpose committed one of the gravest blunders of his Administration.

A SATISFIED REPORTER

When Sir Wilfrid Laurier first formed his government in Canada he made Mr. Tarte minister of public works, says the Kansas City Journal. Difference of political opinion subsequently arose and Mr. Tarte retired. He now devotes himself exclusively to his profession as a journalist and sits in the reporters' gallery of the Canadian House of Commons. He recently remarked:

"I am happy and prospering in my own legitimate newspaper line. I am free to do and write what I brain and conscience dictate. The salary of the governor general would not tempt me to shoulder again the burden of a ministerial portfolio."

Mr. Tarte was at one time the chief organizer of the Canadian Conservative party, but he transferred his services to the Liberals, with whom he is now out of touch.

TIE-UP

On Building and Bridge Work Will Result From the Ironworkers' Strike.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 26.—The structural iron workers employed in the erection of buildings and bridges in Ohio will be ordered to strike. This will only apply to the workmen employed at the plants of the members of the Builders' Association.

The trouble started in Cleveland over a building being erected by the McClintic-Marshall company of Pittsburgh. They insisted on working under the Pittsburgh working rules, as the plant is located in the Pittsburgh district, and a majority of the workmen were taken from Pittsburgh to Cleveland. The Ohio workmen insisted on the work being carried on under the working rules of the Ohio unions.

It is not a question of wages, as the Pittsburgh rate is higher than in some of the Ohio cities. Officials of the Pittsburgh union say the strike cannot be spread to this district, as the Pittsburgh union has a signed agreement which cannot be abrogated until its expiration next spring. The strike will affect considerable bridge work on railroads building throughout Ohio, and a majority of the big buildings will be held up until the question is settled. The structural workers are strongly organized and are getting better wages than carpenters.

LOSES BABIES

Woman Makes a Regular Trade of Abandoning Infants to Obtain a Living.

There are many ways of getting a living in this city, some persons even working for it, but the most amazing of them all was partly unfolded in the Tombs court when it was alleged there was a regular established business for "losing babies" here, the headquarters of the gang being somewhere on West street, says the New York Press. Detectives last night were searching for a woman on that street.

For a long time the managers of children's societies have been convinced that the "losing" of babies has been conducted systematically, and they will be both surprised and pleased if the present case does not develop the fact that "losing" is only an incident. That any one would care to part with an infant is something hardly to be believed by the normal mother, but for many months the officers of the societies have found too much system in the abandonment of babies not to believe there was a regular trade in it.

Of course, every one has heard of the man who wouldn't sell his twins for $1,000,000, but wouldn't give ten cents for another pair, but the idea that women would enter into a scheme of disposing of inconvenient infants was so revolting that the societies were long in taking any action. They got a lead on June 6, however, when an abandoned infant was found on the gallery of Brooklyn bridge. That little one was in a common grocery basket, which had been laid on the floor near the ticket office. Thousands hurried past, but no one paid any attention to the basket covered with a piece of linen, until an employee on the bridge took some interest.

The rush crowd simply parted and passed by on either side until the employee found in the basket one of the prettiest babies any one had seen for a long time. Then the woman in the crowd, and the men, too, had time to stop for a moment and feel sorry for the abandoned one. But one Howe, of the Oak Street Police station, had other things to do than feel sorry, and made a little discovery that he kept to himself until he had a chance to work up his clew and see if there was anything in it. On a bit of cloth swaddling the babe he found the name "Varico."

It wasn't much to go on, but Howe had ideas of his own, and asked the precinct commander if he might go to work on it. Of course, the case properly belonged to the headquarters staff, but all detectives don't wear plain clothes, so Howe was told to go ahead and he was careful to make no blunders.

Following up the faintly defined name on the baby's clothing, the policeman shortly after arrested Mrs. Varico and Mrs. Antoinette Tonella, of No. 35 Madison street. Magistrate Wahle heard the case, and was so amazed at first that he might not have taken any action had it not been that the two women got to quarrelling in court, each one accusing the other of abandoning the infant.

"That woman stole my baby," said Mrs. Varico.
"I did not," retorted Mrs. Tonella. "You know you gave the child to me to take to a woman in Mott street who makes a business of disposing of babies. She told me that the baby was alive and happy in a home in Brooklyn."

Then the magistrate became greatly interested and held the two women. He also learned the name and address of the woman on Mott street, who probably will be arrested. Thus far no allegations more serious than abandonment are made.

Commander A. B. Canaga of the navy, in a report to the navy department on the subject of turbine engines, recommended that hereafter turbines be installed in torpedo boats, destroyers, scout cruisers and gun boats.

Joseph and Pius Bierlein, David Feist, Jacob Noll and George Holvey, school directors of Shennandoah, Pa., were sentenced to serve one year in jail for bribery and conspiracy. Accepted money for influence in appointment of teachers.

Frank R. McCamyon, a waiter at Chicago, believing he shot and fatally wounded a friend in a fight and was liable to arrest, committed suicide.

PRESIDENT

After Attending Harvard Commencement, Will Go To Oyster Bay for the Summer.

Washington, June 26.—The President will leave the White House today for the remainder of the summer. He goes to Cambridge to attend Harvard commencement, thence to Oyster Bay, starting at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. According to present plans the President and family will remain at Sagamore Hill until the latter part of September, with the possible exception of a short visit to Washington at the time of the assembling of the Russo-Japanese peace commission. Miss Alice will remain at the White House until Saturday, when she will start for the Philippines with Secretary Taft's party.

ELECTROCUTED BY ACCIDENT

YOUTHS, ENCIRCLED BY A LIVE WIRE IN PRESENCE OF THEIR LOVED ONES.

Two Mothers and Sweetheart Look On Helplessly While the Boys Are Roasted to Death.

Trenton, N. J., June 26.—Walter Ewing, aged 23, a New York City telegraph operator, was killed in the coils of a live wire at Hopewell last evening in the presence of his fiancée, Miss Grace Matthews, and his own mother, Wesley Davidson, Ewing's elum, of Hopewell, aged 20, in attempting to save Ewing, was also killed by the electric fluid.

Death came so swift to the two men that no one was able to render assistance, and but for the prompt presence of linemen, looking for a grounded wire, the bodies of Ewing and Davidson would have been burned to crisp.

The accident happened in front of Lanning's Hotel, in the middle of the borough of Hopewell, and was caused by Ewing attempting to put out of the way of burning passers-by a dented telephone wire, which had broken loose from its fastenings and fallen to the ground across a live electric light wire.

A milkman had placed the wire out of the way early in the morning, and then reported it to the electric light company. About 6 o'clock Ewing, accompanied by Davidson, Ewing's sweetheart and the mothers of the two young men, came along and instantly Ewing saw the danger in the wire lying on the earth emitting sparks. A dog who sniffed at the wire was shocked, and this was what attracted the young man's attention to the danger. Despite the protest of the women Ewing procured two sticks and sought to place the wire away from the earth and on a telegraph pole. He slipped and fell against the wire and immediately was encircled in its death-dealing coils.

His cry for help stirred Davidson into action and he grabbed two other sticks, seeking to save his friend from death, but he also failed, and the writhing wire caught him to death. Coroner Disbrow of Trenton, went to Hopewell and has ordered an inquest to be held Tuesday.

Ewing's sweetheart and his mother, as well as Davidson's mother, are prostrated with grief.

SEVEN MILLIONS IS CHINA'S OFFER

AMERICANS IN CONTROL HAVE HAVE EXPRESSED WILLINGNESS TO SELL.

Chinese Government Wants Concession for Building Canton-Hankow Railroad Surrendered.

New York, June 26.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald is as follows: Seven million dollars in round numbers has been offered by the Chinese government for the surrender of the concession for the building of the Canton-Hankow railroad now held by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. American and Belgian associates, Sir Chen Tung Liang, Chinese minister to the United States, recently engaged in negotiations with Elihu Root, representing Mr. Morgan. The proposition made was that China buy in the concession and the indebtedness against it. The Peking government has tentatively approved the proposition.

It now remains for the directors of the China-American Development company, in which Mr. Morgan has a controlling interest, to act upon the matter at a meeting to be held in New York early in July.

China gave the concession to the American company in 1897. Only 22 miles of the railroad have been built. China complains that the methods of the company have caused the Chinese to lose faith in this particular enterprise. China has paid to the company several millions of dollars in Chinese government bonds at 96. A portion of these bonds were sold by the company but the majority are now held by Mr. Morgan and his associates. If the deal is closed these bonds will be delivered to the Chinese government.

It is not thought improbable that the Belgian bondholders interested in the company may be loath to surrender the concession. The American interests are, however, in control and have expressed a willingness to sell. About a year ago the Belgian interests were in control, and China then threatened to nullify the concession. The ground was taken that the concession was good only so long as held by Americans. At this critical juncture Mr. Morgan obtained control of the company.

In certain governmental circles there is some regret at the prospective surrender of the concessions. It is realized that an American railway from Canton to Hankow would do much to assist the development of American trade and sustain and increase American prestige.

This is precisely what some people think is one of the corollary reasons why China is willing to pay a great sum for the concession which she gave for nothing to the American company. China will push the railroad, it is understood, and then control it absolutely herself. This will probably result in a change in the treatment of Chinese on the railroad controlled by foreign interests in Chinese. At present there is also a "Jim Crow" arrangement. The Chinese are in traveling on these foreign operated railroad trains, obliged to occupy other cars than those allotted to European and Americans.

NEW PAINT

Has Valuable Properties and May Supersede White Lead, Says a Philadelphia Paper.

If one half that is claimed for the new German paint is true, the white lead base of paints so universally used is doomed, says the Philadelphia Record. The new pigment is obtained from a burnt limestone which contains a considerable proportion, 20 per cent, or more, of magnesite, the best combination being that found naturally in dolomite limestone. This is mixed with hydrocarbon and fired until all the carbon is consumed. Among the desirable features claimed for the new paint are: fineness and smoothness of surface, covering power, permanence and cheapness; quick drying qualities without addition of driers, freedom from yellowing with age, unaffected by ammonia, sulphureted hydrogen or sulphurous acid, and a natural hardening or enameling after a few months. Greatly of all, it may be washed without destroying its original smoothness. Coloring pigments may be used in conjunction with it, as in the case of white lead.

There will be an ice cream social at Opossum Hollow school house Wednesday evening, June 28 for the benefit of the Sunday school. Everybody invited. 2422t.

NEWSPAPER ENGLISH

Dr. Woodrow Wilson's Reply to the Assault of Henry James—Princeton Man to the Defense.

The defense of "newspaper English" by Dr. Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton university, coming so close upon Mr. Henry James' vigorous assault, seems to be intended as a reply to the latter gentleman, remarks the Baltimore Sun. Mr. James in a recent speech in this city and elsewhere, uttered remarks about the newspapers, calculated to make their ears tingle and their argus eyes to stare. He calls newspaper English an "eruption of black type," "hysteria," "screaming" and what not. It cannot be denied that there is some occasion for this terrific arraignment. There is also "book English" which is open to the same criticism. The language of many books is bad, hysterical, a mere eruption of type, and in some of them it is dull, involved and muddy. But it would be manifestly unjust to apply these terms to the language of all books, including those of Mr. James. Dr. Wilson said:

"I think the English used in newspaper articles is remarkably good. It is generally terse and clear and right to the point, and tells in a simple way exactly what the writer wants to say. It is most surprising to me to understand how the reporters, writing as they do so hurriedly and under such a great pressure, are able to write so well. I can hardly comprehend it. None need be afraid of spoiling their taste for good English by reading newspapers. The articles are almost always delightfully free from silliness and trite conventionalities, which is more than can be said of the average college's effusions."

But Mr. James did not confine his criticism to reporters. The editor and the correspondent come in for their share of condemnation. It is said of Macaulay that the smooth flowing, beautifully rounded sentences which seem to have poured from his pen like rain from the clouds of summer, were, in fact, written, rewritten and revised until there was not room to interline any more. The newspaper writer has no opportunity to do this. The paper goes to press at a certain hour and there is no time for revision. Nevertheless, some of the best writers in this or any other country have been newspaper writers. They were good writers, not only in the language they employed, but in the force and vigor with which they enforced their views.

POPPED QUESTION WHILE ASLEEP

RANCHMAN THINKS GIRL HAS NO CLAIM UPON HIM FOR DAMAGES.

Singular Plea of Simon Brandt, Who is About to be Sued by a Pretty School Teacher.

Bordeaux, Wyo., June 26.—If Miss Katherine Rippin, a pretty young school teacher, shall execute her threat to sue Simon Brandt for breach of promise Brandt will go into court and defend the suit on the ground that to his knowledge he never made a proposal of marriage to Miss Rippin, and that if he did propose to her he did it when he was asleep, and therefore is to be held neither to a moral nor legal accountability for his act.

The suit promises to be one of the most singular and interesting ones of its kind in the history of jurisprudence in the west.

Brandt is a ranchman, well to do, good looking, intelligent and one of the best horsemen in the region.

Miss Rippin has secured legal advice, and the case will soon come to trial. Miss Rippin will testify that Brandt made a proposal of marriage to her and that she promised to marry him one night last winter when he called on her and sat up with her until after midnight.

Brandt will admit that he spent the evening in question with Miss Rippin and sat up with her until after midnight. But he will deny that he ever consciously made a proposal of marriage to her. He will seek to show by witnesses that ever since he was a boy he has been addicted to the strange habit of talking, walking and doing many other things in his sleep, and that what he said and did in his sleep he never was able to recall after he awoke.

They will testify that they have known him to suddenly fall into a sleep, or a mental state resembling sleep, when sitting up in his chair, and in his sleep to carry on an apparently rational conversation, and then to wake up wholly unconscious of and utterly unable to recall a word that he had said.

FORSAKEN

In a Strange City Artie is Found Found and Will Be Restored to Her Parents.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 26.—Without friends, in a strange city, Artie Coleman, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of J. W. Coleman, a wholesale merchant of Birmingham, Kansas, has been found by Sheriff Kreis and deputies, in rooms over a saloon opposite the Southern railway passenger station. Ladies who had heard the child's story informed the sheriff and search was made for her. Her father has been informed of her whereabouts.

Artie, while weeping, told the officers her story. She said that through her sweetheart, Layman Stacey, of a prominent Kansas family, she had been furnished money and transportation to this city, not knowing a soul nor where to go. For four weeks she has been hiding in her room, hoping to shortly be able to return home. She believed that her mother knew she was in Knoxville, but was sure that her father did not. Money has been sent her several times.

Information from Birmingham is to the effect that the girl's family is one of the most prominent and wealthy in that section, and it is believed there by her friends that she was visiting relatives.

Operation Upon Mr. Belt.

Granville, O., June 26.—M. T. Belt, of this place, who is a well known employe at the Wehrle stove works, Newark, has been troubled for some time with a tumorous growth on his right foot. Saturday the growth was removed by Drs. Barnes and Foster of Newark, and Mr. Belt will be able to resume work in a few days.

MRS. MARY ROGERS
AND HER CRIMESTORY OF THE BRUTAL MURDER
OF HER HUSBAND IN THE YEAR 1902.

Chloroformed Him to Obtain $600 Insurance and Marry Another Man. Her Accomplice Confessed.

Following is the story of the Mary Rogers murder case in Vermont. Mrs. Rogers has been granted another respite the date of her hanging having been fixed for December 8.

Mrs. Rogers killed her husband, Marcus Rogers, in order that she might possess herself of $600, his life insurance, and marry another man. The murder was committed in Bennington, on Aug. 12, 1902, by the administration of chloroform. The circumstances leading up to the murder breathe of foul deceit, cunning and a viciousness inconceivable in a woman.

Mary Rogers was deeply loved by her husband. Tiring of her life with this quiet, unpretentious man, she left him. In her unfortunate life that followed in Bennington she met a youth, barely 17 years old, by the name of Leon Perham, a half breed Indian, who became enamored of her. Perham wanted to marry her. Mrs. Rogers had no mind for that, but kept Perham dangling by her side.

Mrs. Rogers fell in love with a well known citizen of Bennington, who, however, was not aware of her passion for him. As a woman of the street she knew she could not win him and in her simple way bethought that once in possession of her husband's $600 life insurance money she would become an object of devotion and attention.

According to Perham Mrs. Rogers had written to her husband from whom she was estranged, asking him to meet her at 9:30 at night.

After the meeting and pretended reconciliation Leon led the way into Morgan's grove, and by a winding path to the river.

"May and I walked along with Rogers until we came to a break in the wall," said Leon. "She went through and we followed. It was so cold and I had on a big overcoat. I spread this out on the ground and all three of us sat down. We were only a few feet from the edge of the river.

"May said she had a new trick with a rope.

"He laughed, May laughed, too, and drew out a piece of clothesline. Then she said she'd bet she could tie me so that I couldn't get loose.

"I'll bet you can't, I said.

"She tied my hands loosely and I broke away. She tied it again and I broke away again.

"Try it on him," I said.

"I'll bet you can't tie me," said Rogers.

"He was as strong as an ox. May tied him and tried to tie him tight but he just gave a heave and broke away. She tried it a second time, and he broke loose without any trouble. She was getting worried. She tried it a third time, and when he broke loose again I saw that she couldn't tie him.

"Let me do it," I told her.

"I took the rope—a piece of clothesline. I said to Rogers:

"Kneel down and put your hands behind you."

"He thought it was fun and knelt down. I tied his hands behind him and he struggled but could not get loose. His back was towards May.

"I have her a signal and she drew the vial of chloroform and the handkerchief from her bosom. She poured a few drops on her handkerchief—not very much—and put her arms around his neck. Suddenly she drew his head back in her lap. The move threw him so he was doubly helpless. Then she put the handkerchief to his nose. He sputtered. Suddenly she emptied the vial on the handkerchief, completely saturating it. He began to struggle.

"May, what does this mean?" he asked, heaving his body. "What does it mean?"

"Jump on his legs," she said.

"I jumped on his legs to hold him. May had him gripped around the neck and pressed the handkerchief against his nose. His struggles were terrible. He threw me off as if I had been a kitten. He got one hand free and used it to help himself.

"While he struggled, his breath was deeper. Suddenly he became more quiet, and in a moment he was limp. May clung to him, even after he was quiet, pressing the chloroform-soaked handkerchief down over his face. When all was over she got up."

The body was rolled into the river. A note was left, purporting to have been written by Rogers, that he had drowned himself. Mrs. Rogers' unseemly haste in her efforts to collect the life insurance and other damning circumstances led to her arrest and indictment. Perham confessed and was sent to Wind-on prison for life. Mrs. Rogers was found guilty on December 22, 1902, and she was sentenced to be hanged on the first Friday in last February. She was three times reprieved by Governor Bell.

Mary Rogers was 22 years old and little more than 15 when she killed her husband.

AMUSEMENTS

The Great Barlow Minstrels, who are appearing at Idlewild Park, for the past and present week, presented an entirely new program Sunday afternoon and evening.

The matinee was comfortably filled, while the night house was packed to the doors. Last week's program was a hit from start to finish, still the change made for the present week presents so many new jokes and songs in the first part and new features in the olio, it would appear that that the show is even surpassing their former week's efforts.

There are two very fine ballads offered by the singers in the opening, as well as a couple of good coon songs by the comedians. Mr. Burk's rendition of "Gim me Back my Fifteen Cents" and Mr. Stuart's original song, "Augustus," are two extreme hits in the comedy line. The juggler, Mr. Kall, The Quartette, Mr. Lively, the Contortionist, and Mole and Coleman, the musical mokes, offer some new stunts that are very interesting and acceptable, while the Brothers Brockway, "The Salatorial Comedy Stars," who are new additions to the show, having joined Sunday matinee, proved to be big favorites.

If applause and laughter go to prove a satisfied patron, Idlewild should be packed during the balance of the popular minstrel's engagement.

LIMITED CAR HIT
FRANK MILK WAGONOCCUPANT TAKEN TO HOSPITAL
IN AN UNCONSCIOUS CONDITION MONDAY.

Motorman Hugh Oatman Says That He Whistled for the Crossing as Usual, Monday.

A bad accident occurred on the Columbus, Newark and Zanesville interurban road about 7:10 o'clock Monday morning. Motorman Hugh Oatman and Conductor J. G. Wolf were taking the limited down to Zanesville, to start out on the early morning run. Just as they were about to cross the road crossing at Timber Run, west of Zanesville, Edward Frank, with a closed milk wagon, attempted to cross the track.

Owing to the brush alongside the road, the motorman was unable to see the vehicle until too late, and the car struck the rear end of the wagon, throwing Mr. Frank to the ground. He was rendered unconscious and was taken to the hospital in that condition where his injuries were attended to by Dr. Sellers. At this writing it is not known how badly the man is injured.

Mr. Oatman the motorman, says he whistled for the crossing as usual.

UNDERTAKING FIRM

Long & McCament Have Opened Their Parlors in the Old W. H. Scott Room.

The new firm of undertakers, Long & McCament, recently formed in this city, has just established quarters in the old and well known undertaking parlors for so many years successfully conducted by the late William H. Scott in North Fourth street, near the corner of Church and Fourth streets, and are now ready for business. All calls day or night promptly responded to.

Mr. C. L. H. Long, the manager of the new firm, is a young man well and favorably known by nearly every one in Newark, having been engaged in the newspaper business here for the past fifteen years.

Mr. McCament is a son of Mr. Leonard McCament, a successful undertaker at Bladensburg, and is a practical and experienced embalmer. He is a graduate of two embalming colleges and is thoroughly up-to-date in his system of work.

The business of the new firm is strictly up-to-date. Coffins and caskets from the very finest to the humblest are kept on hand. Everything entering into complete furnishing awaits patrons.

So far as the fixtures are concerned they have none but the best, among which is a fine Hennessy mortuary table, made of glass and on wheels so it can be readily moved from one place to another. They have two fine limousines, a splendid ambulance, a complete minister's rig, a first class buggy, which is something new in Newark, and a casket wagon. The ambulance is one of the finest ever seen in Newark and the new firm is now ready to respond to calls for its use at any time. The rooms are light and airy, all being handsomely carpeted and furnished. They have also made arrangements to secure the services of Mrs. L. N. Bradley, where a lady is desired. They have both phones, Call 459. Both members of the new firm are gentlemen.

The parlors are open for inspection and the public is cordially invited to call.

Stephen Okrent, the locksmith who threw the bomb into the Praga police station, injuring six policemen, was sentenced to death at Warsaw.

BURLINGTON LODGE
MEMORIAL DAYHOMER KNIGHTS HOLD SERVICES
IN MEMORY OF THEIR DEPARTED BROTHERS.

Address Given by Judge Brister After Which the Graves Were Covered With Beautiful Flowers.

Burlington Lodge, No. 531, Knights of Pythias, located at Homer, this county, observed memorial services for the dead on Sunday afternoon in a beautiful and impressive manner. The services were largely attended and were a complete success in every particular.

Mr. Frank Yost, Past Chancellor of the lodge, was master of ceremonies, and he was assisted by Leroy Hayes, as chaplain and the other officers and members of the lodge. A large concourse of the citizens of Homer and the surrounding country turned out to witness the ceremonies.

Burlington lodge, Knights of Pythias was instituted March 11, 1892, in the Castle Hall of Newark lodge, No. 13, Newark, O., with 22 charter members. It has had a steady growth since that time, and now numbers over 90 members in good standing. The lodge has recently erected a two story business block, about 60 feet square, on a prominent corner in Homer, and the lodge occupies the entire second story with a lodge room, ante room and a fine banquet hall. The lodge room has just been finished and is one of the handsomest in the state. It is 30x50 feet, with a modern steel ceiling and the walls are handsomely frescoed with the emblems of the order. The furniture and paraphernalia are all new and up to date, and Burlington lodge has every reason to be proud of itself.

The memorial services were held in the new lodge room at 2 o'clock p.m. the deceased brothers of the lodge being as follows: Rev. C. F. Irish, died July 3, 1893; William Fowls, died October 11, 1894; C. C. DeBolt, died October 23, 1900; R. P. Sellers, died May 12, 1901; T. A. Bell, who died March 22, 1903.

Past Chancellor Yost called the assembly to order and the choir sang a beautiful and appropriate ode.

Rev. Mr. Haas, pastor of the M. E. church, gave an invocation after which the choir again rendered a beautiful piece of music.

Past Chancellor Yost then introduced Past Chancellor E. M. P. Brister of Newark, as the speaker of the day. Judge Brister then delivered a beautiful and touching memorial address, recounting the history of the order, and the beautiful legend of Damon and Pythias upon which it was founded, closing with an exhortation to the members of the order to engrail the true principles of Pythianism—friendship and self sacrifice—living for others—deeply in their hearts, and to exhibit them daily in their lives.

At the conclusion of the services, which were very impressive and commanded the closest attention of all, the Knights and audience repaired to the Homer cemetery, where the graves of the departed brothers were decorated with flowers, and beautiful memorial service for the Pythian dead was performed by Past Chancellor Yost, assisted by Roy Hayes as chaplain and the other members of the order.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Fallsburg, O., June 26.—The Fallsburg township Boxwell commencement exercises will be held at Pleasant Valley church on Friday evening, June 29, at 8 o'clock. Judge E. M. P. Brister will deliver the class address. Good music will be furnished for the occasion.

EAGLES' PICNIC.

Arrangements are being made by Newark Aerie, No. 387, Fraternal Order of Eagles of this city for a grand picnic to be held at Idlewild Park on Thursday, June 29. Aeries from Zanesville, Coshocton, Columbus, Mt. Vernon and Lancaster have been invited to participate in the festivities and will be here on that date. There will be all kinds of amusements and prizes to the amount of $500 will be given away. It is expected that this will be one of the grandest times ever had by the Eagles in Central Ohio.

NEW GERMAN EMBASSY.

Washington, June 26.—The German government has purchased a splendid site for its embassy here opposite the property of the new French embassy, overlooking Sheridan circle on S street, in the northwest section of the city. The property, which is shaded by magnificent trees, rises to a considerable height above the street, and measures about 300 by 195 feet. The negotiations for the purchase of the property have been in progress for some time, and have just been successfully concluded. On this site will be erected a splendid stone structure of the style of Frederick the Great, reproducing perhaps in general outline the famous "Sans Souci" castle of the new castle at Potsdam.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE FIELD OF SPORT

LOCALS BLANKED BY MT. VERNON

SUNDAY'S GAME RESULTED IN A BAD DEFEAT BY PITCHER LILLIS.

Nel Mason and Lefty Snyder Were Both Batted Hard and Lillis Was Invincible.

Manager Jack Goodrich and his bunch of Mt. Vernon players, supported by a good bunch of fans, came down from Knox county's capital Sunday afternoon and walloped Snow's men in great shape. In fact, the Newark players didn't have a look in at any stage of the game.

Nel Mason and Lefty Snyder were officiating slab men and the hit collection in the score given below will be at neither pitcher was slighted.

It was in the fourth that Mt. Vernon started safely frequently with Nel's batters. The onslaught was there that Lefty Snyder was called on right field and sent to the box.

Teddy Purcell was sent into the field to cover that ground. Snyder was hit rather freely too. In addition to that feature of the game, he had the Newark batsmen on his back from the opening of the game.

Five measly hits were allowed by Mt. Vernon twirler and then, too, the locals played loosely in the field.

Both teams will play today and Tuesday at Idlewild park.

Boecher, "Skin" Miller, Earl Russell and Julian Speer.

TWO FOR M. & M.

The M. & M. team took two games Sunday, the first by a clean score, the next by a forfeit. The morning game went to the M. & M. bunch easily by the score of 3 to 2 in five innings. The batteries were Spring and Pease, Hetley and Raisin.

In the afternoon the same team played the Moull street bunch and in the seventh inning both balls were lost and the manager of the Moull street aggregation tossed up a ball of inferior quality, known as a "quarter ball." The M. & M. manager wouldn't play with this and his opponents left the diamond, forfeiting the game to M. & M., 9 to 0. The score was 7 to 6 in the seventh inning in favor of the Moull street team. Batteries—Stockberger and Pease, Shaughnessy-Stough and Earl.

London, June 26.—The following have been appointed members of a commission to inquire into the South African army stores scandal: Justice Farwell of the high court of justice, chairman; Sir George Dashwood Taubman Goldie of the privy council; Field Marshal Sir George White, governor of Gibraltar; Sir Francis Mowatt, a member of the senate of the University of London, and Samuel H. Morley, former governor of the Bank of England.

British Steamer Sunk.

Singapore, June 26.—The British India Steam Navigation company's ship Ikona was sunk by the Russian cruiser Terek June 5, 150 miles north of Hongkong. The crew was landed here by the Dutch steamer Porlak, which the Terek met June 19. The Ikona was carrying the mails and rice from Rangoon to Yokohama.

WHITE WASHED

Were Drumm's Moguls at Zanesville Sunday by Fast Youngstown Aggregation.

Tom Huling, the noisy first baseman of the Moguls, got his bumps from the Times Recorder at Zanesville in this morning's issue for his dopy play in the game Sunday with Youngstown. It seems that Huling's rank errors permitted Youngstown to score in the sixth and his sleepy base running in the eighth inning lost the only chance the Moguls had to tie the score. As it was the game was a 1 to 0 affair.

Lucas pitched excellent ball allowing but two hits. The Moguls batted Dolan harder and got five safeties but were unable to score. The Zanesville bunch is playing in Pennsylvania the early part of the week. The score:

MOGULS TOOK SATURDAY'S GAME

TWELVE INNING CONTEST LOST BY ONE BAD ERROR IN THE FIELD.

Huling Kicked on Umpire's Decision and Crowd Invades the Field—Purcell's Superb Pitching.

Teddy Purcell pitched a marvelous twelve inning game of baseball at Idlewild park Saturday afternoon and it was only through some bad luck that the extra three innings were necessary. As it was two errors in the outfield and one in the infield, coupled with three hits that came in a bunch, nettled the visitors their four runs which won the game.

Newark scored two runs during the early part of the game, one in the second inning and one in the seventh. Zanesville was unable to score until after two men were out in the ninth inning. Then came a hit and an error and some slow playing letting in two runs and tying the score. Then in the twelfth, came three hits and two errors which allowed two more Moguls to cross the rubber and the failure of the Newark men to cross the plate again lost the game, 4 to 2.

Things looked bad in the latter part of the game when Huling came to bat and Harry Taylor called a strike on him that looked too high. Huling trotted to the pitcher's box, trailing his bat with him. The crowd hooted and ran onto the diamond.

Chief Sheridan was in the grand stand and went onto the field sounding his whistle. Five or six officers from the crowd came onto the diamond and forced the crowd back behind the wire fence and remained on the field to see that no violence was attempted.

The officers then allowed the players and the umpire to settle the argument among themselves. Of course Huling is known as a chronic kicker but the ball which Taylor called a strike was probably high and was misjudged by the umpire.

Conferred With Wallace.

New York, June 26.—Secretary Taft had a conference at the Manhattan hotel with John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal; T. P. Shonts, chairman of the canal commission, and William Nelson Cromwell, counsel for the commission, but refused to make any statement as to what matters had been discussed. Immediately after the conference Secretary Taft left for New Haven.

Blue Laws In Texas.

Austin, Tex., June 26.—An old Sunday law was enforced rigorously here and saloons and even soda fountains were closed. It was impossible to get a shoe shine or a cigar, and the baseball managers had to throw open the gates to every one in order to play. Hundreds left the city on local trains for resorts outside the city limits.

Strikers to Vote.

Chicago, June 26.—A referendum vote will be taken tonight by the striking teamsters on the proposition to accept the terms of settlement offered by the employers. Should the vote be against the acceptance of the terms it is said there is a probability that all of the 35,000 union teamsters of Chicago may go on strike.

LEVI BEVARD

by the several witnesses, was an old man who came to him some time before the murder and asked for work. Mr. Wright gave him a bed in his barn for a few nights until he could get work in the vicinity. Later he was allowed to sleep here nights but was regarded as harmless by all who knew him.

Edward Moxley, a contractor in Newark township was called shortly after the hearing opened Monday morning. He told of the arrest of the stranger on June 10. The witness stated that his prisoner told him that he left Pennsylvania because the authorities in that state wanted him for manslaughter. The prisoner was turned over to the jailor at the county jail where he later committed suicide. Moxley stated that he saw what looked like blood spots on the man's hat and vest. The witness stated that he could not say that the clothing had been washed.

Edward Young lives in the neighborhood of the Frances Weris home, one-eighth of a mile east. He visited the Weris home on the morning of the murder at the same time the officers arrived. The witness stated that he saw imprints of bare feet in blood on the stair steps in three different places. Mr. Young testified that as far as he knew the Weris girl (Eva) had a fairly good reputation. He said the defendant, Levi Bevard, as far as he knew, was not of a vicious temperament. He saw Eva with a paper which looked like a certificate of deposit. Mr. Young could not state that the foot-prints on the steps were made by a feminine foot.

Charles Spence, who lives with a sister in McKean township, testified that he and a man named Matheoney on the night of the murder were on a freight train enroute to Chicago Junction. He stated that a brakeman on the train tried to put him off.

John Good stated to the court that Charles Spence told him that he was in the neighborhood on the night of the murder. Spence's wife lives with Mr. Good's family near the Weris home.

Alexander Bevard of Newton township, told of the strange man who applied at the home of Wesley Wright for work. The man worked for Mr. Jones, a farmer near the Wright farm. He would not stay in the house but slept in the barn on the Wright home. The witness said that Eva Weris saw the man in the woods several times, while on trips to and from the pasture. Mr. Bevard said that he had not seen the man since Decoration day. He said that Eva Weris' reputation for truth and veracity was not the best.

MEMORIAL DAY FOR THE ODD FELLOWS

SPLendid ADDRESS DELIVERED BY REV. J. C. SCHINDEL AT CEDAR HILL.

About Two Hundred Members of the Order Are Buried in the Newark Cemetery.

The annual memorial services for the Odd Fellows of the Newark lodge of O. F. F. was held at Cedar Hill cemetery on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Some two hundred Odd Fellows are interred in Cedar Hill cemetery and their graves are scattered all over that beautiful city of the dead. The Odd Fellows met at Odd Fellows Temple and marched to the cemetery in a body. Arriving at the cemetery a special program of memorial services was held on the mound, presided over by Mayor A. J. Cilly. The program was opened with music, followed by an invocation by Rev. J. C. Schindel. Rev. Mr. Locke, pastor of the Second M. E. church then delivered a fine memorial address, in which he spoke of the great problems of life and death, and the benefits of Odd Fellowship to the membership and the world at large.

A fine piece of music was then rendered, followed by Rev. J. C. Schindel, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church, who delivered a brief but eloquent address on the benefits and objects of Odd Fellowship. The funeral ode was then sung and the vast audience dispersed.

Owing to the large number of Odd Fellow dead in the cemetery, and the graves being so widely scattered, it was impossible to decorate them separately. Accordingly a large and beautiful altar of flowers was constructed, which was borne on the shoulders of two Odd Fellows in the procession, and placed in front of the speakers during the rendering of the program. At the conclusion of the services the altar of flowers was placed on the Odd Fellows' lot as a general memorial to the dead of the order in Cedar Hill cemetery. The services throughout were very impressive and beautiful and reflected great credit on the order and those having charge of the memorial.

EDWARD HEADLEY

Zanesville Boy Who Visited Buckeye Lake Last Week Strangely Missing—Family Alarmed.

A Zanesville paper contains the following regarding Edward Headley of Zanesville, who is strangely missing from his home in that city:

"Edward Headley, who resides with his mother on Ridge avenue, is strangely missing and although some think he is simply visiting a relative near Buckeye Lake, others are very much concerned in regard to his safety.

Early Wednesday morning Harry Leis, Harry Sockman and Edward Headley left this city on the interurban for Buckeye Lake, where the party intended to spend the day fishing. All went well until it was time to make the return trip home. During the afternoon Headley and his two companions became separated. When the hour of departure came Leis and Sockman returned to this city, thinking that their companion was on his way home or would return safely. They had gone to the opposite side of the lake where they had left Headley, so they knew he would be unable to find them. Headley did not return that evening or Thursday morning, nor yet Thursday evening.

"This has given cause for alarm. Communication has been held with all points along Buckeye Lake without throwing any light on the whereabouts of Headley. He was registered at no hotel, was not in Newark, and has not returned home.

"The last seen of the man he was in a skiff out on the lake with two boys. Who the boys were or where they went cannot be learned. Headley's coat has been found on the shore of the lake among some bushes. This gives rise to the suspicion of foul play.

SEPARATION DEBATE IS CONCLUDED

Paris, June 26.—With the settlement by the chamber of deputies of the controversial point in the church and state separation bill relating to the formation of governing bodies destined to take over control of the churches, the debate was practically concluded. The bases of reform, including the cutting of the bonds uniting church and state, the abolition of budgetary provision for members of the clergy except those entitled to pensions, the future disposal of religious edifices and the constitution of parish societies, all aroused heated discussion. The last named question attracted the close attention of the opponents of the bill, the desire being to prevent church property becoming the object of future political strife. It was finally decided that the governing bodies shall have power to make church collections and charges for ceremonies and to form reserve funds for the maintenance of the clergy and the edifices, but they are not to be allowed to receive legacies.

DR. WORK OF GRANVILLE IS TO TAKE A LEADING PART IN THE PROGRAM.

Ohio Christian Endeavorers Will Meet in the Gem City—Meeting Will End on Friday.

Dayton, O., June 26.—The various committees in charge of the reception of delegates at the Ohio Christian Endeavor Convention which opens in this city tomorrow have concluded arrangements for the big gathering at meetings held here. Hundreds of delegates and a thousand or more visitors are expected. Among the prominent out of town speakers may be mentioned President J. E. Fout, of Fostoria; Rev. Dr. Edwin F. Hallenback, of Birmingham, N. Y.; Dr. C. S. Work, of Granville; Dr. L. C. Lahr, of Delaware; Rev. George Kennott of Lowell, Mass.; Rev. John Hammond, of Columbus; Dr. Charles Goss, of Cincinnati; Rev. S. J. McDowell, of Springfield; Rev. J. F. Cowan, of Boston; Dr. John Robertson of Scotland, a noted divine who is touring the United States, and many others. The first service will be held in the Third street Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. Dr. Hallenback will be the principal speaker and an overflow meeting will be held the same evening at the Main street Lutheran church. Dr. Work of Granville, taking the leading part in the discussion, though Field Secretary Hubbell will participate. Rev. Gungott, of Lowell, Mass., will also deliver an address. The convention will continue until Friday evening and numerous denominational meetings will be held.

SPEED WAR

Noted Columbus Preacher Ascribes Crop of Nervous Troubles to Fast Travel.

Columbus, O., June 26.—Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden preached last night at the First Congregational church upon the "Speed Craze." After referring to the craze for speed in cycling and automobilism, and its attendant risks and consequences, Dr. Gladden said:

"This greed of velocity has worse still to answer for. The recent reckless speeding of railway trains is part of the craze. I cannot believe that any real interest of man is secured by these furious schedules. They are a fruit of the distemper of the times. They involve risks and perils to trainmen as well as to passengers, which are, I believe, wholly unwarranted by any normal human demand.

"It cannot be safe to send such prodigious constructions through the air at 70 miles an hour. The awful casualty at Mentor the other day emphasizes the peril. It is quite misleading to say that the speed of the train had nothing to do with the accident. It is true that the train would have been thrown from the track if it had been going at 35 miles and hour instead of 70 but it is not at all probable that a half or a quarter of the destruction of life would have occurred at the lower rate of speed. The momentum of the train would have been just half as great and the crash just half as terrible.

"Speaking more generally, it is evident that this speed craze is not only lessening our pleasures and increasing our perils but that it is also shortening the lives of many who are not victims of its slaughters. The rush and hurry are producing a great crop of fatal nervous disorders. That haste makes waste of life in many cases is far too manifest."

JEWISH FAMILY

Exterminated at Lodz by Cossacks. Rioting Continues.

Lodz, Russian Poland, June 26.—The most serious phase of the fighting between the military and strikers is at an end, but there are still isolated attacks in the suburbs. At Baluty Cossacks attacked a Jewish family of five persons who were driving in a cab to the railway station and shot and killed all, including the cabman. At Pabjanice, near Lodz, workmen attacked two policemen and shot and killed another. There is a general exodus from Lodz. Twelve thousand persons have already left and all trains are crowded. During the disturbances 35 government liquor stores were destroyed by the mobs which appropriated all the cash and stamps found on the premises. The cash and stamps were added to the funds of the Socialist party. The workmen in all the factories will strike.

Now a Policeman.

Wapakoneta, O., June 26.—Frank D. Reed, known as "Shad" Reed, late cashier of the German-American bank at Sidney, which went into bankruptcy, is now a policeman at Casino park, Toledo. But a few years ago he built a summer hotel at Lewistown reservoir that cost $50,000.

Fire at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., June 26.—Fire broke out shortly before 2 o'clock this morning in the Willard Storage Battery company's building, completely gutting the building and doing $50,000 damage. Fairbanks, Morse & Company's building also was damaged.
